Promarine Offshore

1. Introduction

Promarine Offshore respects the privacy of all visitors to its website and is committed to ensuring that personal data is processed in accordance with applicable data protection legislation, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

2. Collection of Personal Data

Promarine Offshore may collect and process personal data provided voluntarily through contact forms, email correspondence, quotation requests, or other communications. Such data may include:

- Name;
- Company name;
- Email address;
- Telephone number;
- Any information voluntarily submitted by the user.

In addition, technical information such as IP addresses, browser information, and website usage data may be collected automatically.

3. Purpose of Processing

Personal data is processed solely for the following purposes:

- Responding to enquiries and requests;
- Providing information regarding our services;
- Preparing quotations and agreements;
- Managing business relationships;
- Complying with legal and regulatory obligations;
- Improving the functionality and security of the website.

4. Disclosure to Third Parties

Promarine Offshore does not sell personal data to third parties.

Personal data may be shared with service providers or authorities where necessary for the performance of services, legal compliance, or legitimate business operations. Such parties are required to maintain appropriate confidentiality and security measures.

5. Data Retention

Personal data shall not be retained longer than necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, unless a longer retention period is required by law.

6. Security

Promarine Offshore implements reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorised access, loss, misuse, or disclosure.

7. Rights of Data Subjects

Individuals may request access to, correction of, or deletion of their personal data, subject to applicable legal requirements. Requests may be submitted using the contact details provided below.

8. Cookies

This website may use cookies and similar technologies to ensure proper functionality, analyse website traffic, and improve user experience. Users may adjust cookie settings through their browser preferences.
